We're in a transformational era for wealth and philanthropy, requiring new competencies and cultural dexterity to thrive. Daylight's learning platform is designed to help you meet this extraordinary opportunity to grow your relationships and trust with advisors.

Learn how the Certified Impact Philanthropy Advisor program equips you with the confidence and competence to serve as a resource for donors and advisors. Or, take advantage of Daylight's Enterprise Cohort offering and host a group of advisors in your community to complete the IPA program, deepening your collective expertise while elevating your standing with your most valuable referral source.
